Summer Worship

With vacations, weekend travel plans and the general enjoyment of summer, worship attendance at Messiah tends to take a hit. I hope this summer is an exception because we are working hard to preach relevant and encouraging messages, share some great musical gifts from our members and create a space for us together to sing, pray, eat and grow. We are less of a church without all of you, so come and worship, the air conditioning is working! If you miss a Sunday but still wanted to keep your financial commitment, no worries. Go to our website, www.messiahlutheran.net and click on the Give Tab at the top right. We have a secure server to take your gift once or set it up to give every week through the website like I do.

Peace, Pastor Karl

THEOLOGY PUB

We hope you plan to attend our next gathering at Prost on Monday night, July 24 at 7:00 p.m. Most of us order drinks, some order food. About 7:20 I introduce the first of two parts of the discussion for the evening. Then at your table of four or so, you will tackle some discussion questions. Around 8:00 or so, I gather the entire group and we all hear some of the best ideas from the small groups. I then launch a new discussion on the topic that your table tackles until about 8:25. We end promptly at 8:30 PM. Some stay later, their interest sparked by an idea.

Peace,
Pastor Karl

We celebrate with Stephen and Kristin McAllister this morning as their son Kareic David McAllister is baptized.

Congratulations to Andrew and Rebecca Boring on the birth of their baby girl. Alexandra Marie Boring was born June 15.

1180 Waggoner Road Update

The church completed the purchase of the house and property next door in June, thanks to a generous cash bridge loan from one of our members (and we have complete access to it now). We purchased the property for $125,000. We will finance the property by adding it to our mortgage with Mission Investment Fund, a part of our ELCA denomination. Members are encouraged to give $40 a month towards this mortgage. A task force has been created to evaluate the house and property and gather costs associated with possible uses. Serving on this group are Tim Thompson, Joe Gulling, Suzanne Schmandt, Jim Diehm and Dick Miller with Sara Reidler the council representative. Their goal is to provide a menu of ministry options and costs by the September council meeting. If you have any ideas for the property, please contact directly one of the people on the task force in the next few weeks. Please keep this exciting new opportunity for more ministries at Messiah in your prayers.

Peace,
Pastor Karl
