One Bed One Child

Messiah will be partnering with The Columbus Foundation and Joseph's Coat to provide beds for Central Ohio Families. Mattresses/Beds are the most requested form of furniture that Joseph's Coat receives. In 2017, they delivered 393 mattresses. They could have distributed twice as many, if more had been available. We are asking our Messiah Family to help provide beds to Columbus area families.

1. If you have gently used beds/mattresses that you can donate, please sign up in the Gathering space. Fill out all requested information and Joseph's Coat will contact you about picking it up.

2. A box for contributions is also in the gathering space and money collected will go towards buying beds/mattresses.

3. Sign up in the gathering space to help Joseph's Coat pick up beds/mattresses on June 2nd.

We celebrate with the Gulling family this morning as Gabriella Lynn Gulling is baptized. Her parents are Ryan and Heather Gulling and her grandparents are Joe and Lori Gulling.

Make sure everyone who walks in our doors on Sunday morning is greeted warmly and knows the next steps to the sanctuary for worship, the nursery for their young children, the fellowship hall for coffee or the restroom to freshen up. Greeting on Sunday morning is an easy way to serve, and an important service for our church. Sign up this morning at the table in our Welcome Center to be a greeter at the worship service you attend.

Messiah Night will end Wednesday, May 23 this year.

Fellowship and educational opportunities are offered. The dinner is served buffet style at 5:30. Stay tuned, because we hope to continue some adult education opportunities into the summer on Wednesday nights.

Can't make it to the Pastor's Class on Wednesdays or the Men's breakfast on Thursdays? No worries. Head to our website, www.messiahlutheran.net and discover an online bible study on the book of Mark. There you will find fifteen minute verse by verse video reflections on Mark's story of Jesus along with a study sheet for further reflection and prayer throughout the week. Keep your baptismal promise and continue to grow in your understanding of Jesus.
