Summer Book Study: Everything Happens for a Reason: And Other Lies I've Loved, by Kate Bowler

Join Pastor Karl for two Wednesdays, August 22 and August 29 at 7:00 in the Nursery. We will have two discussions about this memoir of a Duke University Seminary Professor in her late thirties who is fighting stage 4 cancer. The short book is touching, funny and asks good questions about where is God when all this happens to us and how can we serve each other best when we are in need. To participate best in the class, the book should be read before the first class. We will spend the first week talking about the book, the second week addressing some of those questions about faith and God specifically, if not finding answers at least wondering together. Books are available in the Welcome Center for you to purchase ($15.00) or you can purchase it online or at Barnes and Noble.

One Child – One Bed – A Success Story -

Joseph's Coat is so happy to report that so far, this campaign has brought in $12,411.19. In addition, we have received approximately 45 mattresses, as well as a lot of other furniture. These monies and mattresses will be used to purchase twin mattresses and bases so that we can bring more children off the floor and onto a mattress. We are truly thankful to everyone who participated, including partner churches, anonymous gifts through Columbus Foundation, those volunteers working in the furniture department and truck drivers picking up mattresses and furniture in 90 degree heat this summer!

Please consider praising God through song & doing lots of laughing in the process. How? Join the Senior Saint Choir. Rehearsals begin August 22 at 10:00 a.m. in Fritz Hall. All are welcome.
