Summer Financial Giving

At our May council meeting, we learned that our financial giving at Messiah for our overall ministries is behind where we had hoped to be. The congregation should be aware of this as we head into summer. For all of our members, we are asking they consider giving more consistently by going to our website at www.messiahlutheran.net and using our secure and safe portal to give directly online. This would be a big benefit for the congregation. Also, if you are able because God has been good to you financially this year, consider giving a thank offering this summer. Finally, remember no gift is too small. I am thankful for how God provides for the worship ministry of the congregation.

Peace,
Pastor Karl

Last Messiah Night Results

Several youth took part in a very competitive scavenger hunt on the last Messiah night. Sadly, we had no prizes for the winners. So if you see Bobby Sheridan or Makayla Howard, the winners, in church, we'll be sure to congratulate them. Your praise and recognition will be their prize! Thanks for helping us out.

Last Sunday was one for the books. With our roof off, the very heavy rain that came at 8:00 AM as worship was beginning, brought a downpour into our sanctuary. Due to the quick thinking of those gathered, pews were covered, hymnals and musical instruments moved, floors mopped all while Pastor Liz preached and worship was led. Sunday afternoon, we called in a company to professionally dry out our sanctuary. The roofer came out that afternoon and installed large tarps on the exposed roof. Other than a problem with the six rear chandeliers in the sanctuary, nothing seems damaged. Until we can have our lights repaired, we are asking worshipers to sit in the front half of the sanctuary.

Peace,
Pastor Karl
