Summer Celebration, Sunday, June 27

We don't want to prematurely say the US pandemic is over, but we are certainly in a better place. Our church community weathered this ferocious storm while supporting those who got very sick, grieving members and the family of members who died and encouraging those who were most isolated. Through it all our ministry to love each other and our neighbor continues and worship came from our sanctuary every Sunday.

Let's take a breath and give thanks on Sunday, June 27. Worship Director Tyler Driggs and I are planning two special outdoor worship services at 9 and 11. We will sing rousing songs of thanksgiving and lift up prayers for continued healing. Between the services from 10 AM to 11, we will have food and games. Chef Marty is making a great big fruit bowl for all and we are getting hooked up with a ton of donut holes. Bring a brunch/breakfast sort of plate to pass if you can. Children and Youth Ministers, Dawn and Adam will have some games for adults and families, too. Some activities include water balloons.

Robin Vanover and Kristin McAllister will need some volunteers to help serve up food in a way that limits contact, so contact the church office today to tell us you can help.

We deserve a party. Put worship and Fellowship on your calendar for June 27. I will be leading and preaching that Sunday, too, having arrived back from Alaska by that time. I can't wait to see all of you then.

Peace,
 Pastor Karl

This morning's altar flowers are given to the glory of God and are presented by Amanda Tusim for Teddy, Andrew and Max Tusim's June birthdays. Happy 40th Max!

Social Distancing in Worship

To accommodate the great attendance at our 9 AM Traditional Worship service, we have removed the social distancing guidelines for the first six pews. Worshippers will be allowed to sit in every pew in the first six pews, only. In the remainder of the sanctuary we will continue to only allow seating in every other pew for the time being.

Memorial Garden Pavers - It's paver time again. Pat Speakman and Marge Seymour will be in the Welcome Center each Sunday during June. The cost is $75.00 per paver. If you are new to Messiah and don't know about the pavers take a walk through the Memorial Garden, or simply ask Pat or Marge about them this week or any week this month.
