Due to the new CDC guidance and the spike in Covid 19 cases, we are strongly recommending all Sunday morning worshippers wear masks for the next several weeks. We will also reimpose the social distancing in the sanctuary, seating people every other pew. We continue to insist all unvaccinated worshippers wear masks in worship. We will suspend for now our plans to return to traditional communion practices. We will return to the traditional worship times, 8, 9:30, 11, this Sunday August 15.

This morning's altar flowers are given to the glory of God and are presented by Mike and Jean Lantis in honor of their 45th wedding anniversary.

Back to School, Back to Church

This morning we return to three worship services on Sunday morning. 8:00 AM will be our most traditional service with a full setting of liturgy from the ELW weekly. 9:30 AM will return as our Contemporary Service, led by our Praise Band. Children's Church will happen during the 9:30 AM service. 11:00 AM will be a traditional worship service, resembling our current traditional service. The 9:30 AM and 11:00 AM services will be live streamed on FB. The 9:30 AM and 11:00 AM will have the words of hymns and songs and other worship graphics to encourage you.

As summer ends and kids are prepared for school, we look forward to seeing our families return to worship life, too.

God gave us these pets to care for and love and bring joy. Share your love and joy with all of us.
