Thank you to Julie Mederer who has been doing the baptismal napkins for years. Her hands won't allow her to do it anymore, but she will continue doing the certificates that accompany the napkins. We appreciate Bessie McGarvey for stepping forward and agreeing to continue Messiah's tradition.

This morning's altar flowers are given to the glory of God and are presented by Linda Thompson in loving memory of her mother, Loretta Blair.

Music Sunday

10 AM, May 22

We will have only one worship service on Sunday, May 22 in order for all of us to gather together as the full body of Christ that is Messiah.

Come and enjoy multiple gifts from our choirs, individuals, band, and more, all wrapped around worship of the risen Lord! Join your voice and sing God's praises.

We celebrate with our Confirmands as they affirm their baptism this morning. They are Emma Agboragbor, Hannah Agboragbor, Riley Albright, Addison Grace Brown, Nicholas Ryan Epperly, Mayci Gilmore, Emma Janelle Harmacek, Sophia Leann Lindsey, James Tredwin Messick, Ryan Stought and Aubrey Yekisa.

Senior Lunch Bunch Brunch – We hope you will join us for our next luncheon on Tuesday, May 17th at noon. The theme is brunch. That means hash browns or breakfast casseroles, French toast, soups, salads, desserts, chicken salad, etc., etc.

Barb Teague is Retiring

10 AM Sunday, May 22, Music Sunday will be Barb Teague's last Sunday leading the Senior Saints. Few members of Messiah can remember a time when Barb wasn't involved in our music life at Messiah Lutheran. From leading worship on the piano to organ, to directing adult choirs, bell choirs, and children choirs, to casting, directing and producing a number of musical dinner theaters to helping plan and organize festival Sundays, Barb has been the heart of our life together. There will be reception for Barb after Music Sunday for all of us to say thank you. If you have pictures of Barb leading in year's past, please bring them for a special table we will have set up.

VBS is coming down the tracks. Scan the code to register your child and to sign up as a volunteer. Registration is now open!

Children's Sunday was a beautiful success.

Many thanks to all who made Children's Sunday a great success last week. The kids in attendance at 9:30 Worship, sang and did motions to songs, had a sermon just for them, and paraded around the sanctuary with bright colored helium balloons. We were blessed to have had fifteen families from MCS visit, too. Our High School and Confirmation youth who led the Children's Sermon and taught the motions. Kristin Vanover who made sure our table of treats was overflowing in the Fellowship Hall. Thrivent Financial for the Action Team Grant that bought all of those great balloons.

We want to celebrate you and your accomplishments! Please send Adam Schlett a picture of yourself, where you're graduating from, and future plans at your earliest convenience to ensure we get your information into the service.

We have many opportunities to help with Snacks, Crafts, Games, skits, and leading small groups. Reach out to Adam Schlett with any questions.
